ASIA MINOR MASSACRE OF CHRISTIANS FEARED

Capture of Salonika by the Greeks is Officially Announced

PARIS, Nov. 7.—News that the Bulgarian troops have broken through the last Turkish defense and seized Constantinople is expected momentarily. The report that Czar Ferdinand has decided not to enter Constantinople is discredited here, although it is expected a Christian massacre will follow his occupation. Reports say the Sultan is preparing to transfer his capital to Brussa, in Asia Minor, taking his army along. If this is done a massacre of 200,000 Christians is certain to follow.

VIENNA, Nov. 7.—It is reported that 20,000 Kurds are marching to the assistance of Constantinople. Sofia telegrams say the Bulgarians are furiously attacking the Tchakia forts, the last line of the Turkish defense.

BERLIN, Nov. 7.—Telegrams from Constantinople say that 300 Bulgarians were killed when a mine exploded today. Sofia wires say that the Bulgarians have captured several positions. Smyrna dispatches indicate that a wholesale massacre of Christians is imminent in Asia Minor.

GREEKS OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCE
THE CAPTURE OF SALONIKA
LARISSA, Greece, Nov. 7.—It has been officially announced that the Greeks have captured Salonika.

ROME, Nov. 7.—The Turkish stronghold of Monastir surrendered at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon to the Serbian troops, according to a dispatch from Belgrade to the Tribune. Monastir has been the scene of many massacres. Half of its population of 40,000 professes the Christian faith.

TURKS CANNOT FIGHT ON EMPTY STOMACHS—FOOD SENT
LONDON, Nov. 7.—The remnants of the Turkish army have now reached the last ditch in European Turkey. The commissariat department, on which the blame for the series of defeats can be largely laid, has at last realized that even Turkish soldiers cannot fight on empty stomachs. It is hurrying bread to the works and trenches as the one means left of keeping the soldiers from overrunning Constantinople.

CHRISTIANS AND FOREIGNERS
FLEE FROM CONSTANTINOPLE;
40,000 WOUNDED TURKS IN CITY
CONSTANTINOPLE, Rumania, Nov. 7.—Refugees from Constantinople arriving here report that Christians are fleeing from the Turkish capital and all foreigners are sending their families away. They report 40,000 wounded Turks in Constantinople. All hotels and public buildings are filled with the dead and dying.

IMPERIAL FAIR BIG SUCCESS—
3000 WERE THERE YESTERDAY
EL CENTRO, Nov. 7.—The second day of the Imperial county fair was attended by about 3000 people yesterday. The fair was in full swing for the first time and all of the various exhibits were in place. The record-breaking crowd which is attending the fair has swamped the capacity of the hotels and rooming-houses in Imperial Valley and the question now up to the management is how the San Diego crowd which is to attend on Saturday 500 strong may be handled.

ACTIVITY SHOWN IN ORANGE PROPERTY
ORANGE, Nov. 7.—Unusual activity has been evidenced in citrus property in this section during the past few days, and several important transfers have been made. The five-acre Valencia grove of A. Crawshaw, on Tustin avenue, one and a half miles northeast of Orange, has been sold to Wm. Lusk, a recent comer from Michigan, for $10,000. Mr. Lusk will erect a handsome residence on the property and make it his home. Wells & Warner of Santa Ana conducted the deal.

T. J. Alexander has sold his 15-acre orange ranch on East Chapman avenue to George H. Peterson, of Los Angeles. The consideration has not been made public, but the property is a choice one and undoubtedly brought a stiff price.

S. P. Robb has sold a five-acre Valencia grove near Villa Park to Blanche I. Smith, a recent comer from Wisconsin, for a consideration not stated.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCK IS RECORDED BY SEISMOGRAPH
WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The Georgetown seismograph recorded a severe earthquake this morning. It was estimated that the center of the disturbance is thirty-five hundred miles distant.

Fell From Tree Arm Cut to Bone By Broken Glass

Earl Hurley, an 11-year-old boy living at 1806 North Broadway, had a fall yesterday from a tree, throwing him into some broken glass and resulting in the serious cutting of his hand, wrist and forearm. A gash clear to the bone caused profuse bleeding and necessitated the taking of fifteen stitches. Dr. H. E. W. Barnes sewed up the wound.

Owing to a weak heart, young Hurley had to endure the sewing process without taking an anesthetic. He stood the operation all right and is getting along very well.

TRAIN BREAKS IN TWIN IN TUNNEL

One Dead and Many Ill as the Gaseous Air Fills Tunnel on Top of the Cascades

ELLENBURG, Wash., Nov. 7.—Conductor Leonard Hallett is dead and seventeen others are seriously ill as a result of a westbound freight train breaking in two in the middle of a mile-long tunnel on the summit of the Cascades, practically imprisoning the crew and a number of laborers. One brakeman is violently insane as a result of his terrible experience in the gaseous tunnel.

Hallett's body cannot be recovered until an oxygen apparatus can be secured. A special train bearing physicians was rushed to the scene.

THANKSGIVING DAY IS PROCLAIMED BY TAFT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—President Taft issued the Thanksgiving proclamation today. He said: "The year drawing to a close has been notably favorable for our fortunate land. It is at peace within and without, free from perturbations and calamities afflicting other peoples, and rich in harvests so abundant that it is overflowing with prosperity and advantages over other nations."

IMPERIAL FAIR BIG SUCCESS—

3000 WERE THERE YESTERDAY
EL CENTRO, Nov. 7.—The second day of the Imperial county fair was attended by about 3000 people yesterday. The fair was in full swing for the first time and all of the various exhibits were in place. The record-breaking crowd which is attending the fair has swamped the capacity of the hotels and rooming-houses in Imperial Valley and the question now up to the management is how the San Diego crowd which is to attend on Saturday 500 strong may be handled.

Secretary Armstead is looking up accommodations for the visitors and has made arrangements with Imperial, Brawley, Calexico and Holtville to take care of a part of the visiting throng.

Tomorrow is Imperial Day and the sister city will send a big force. The horse races are exceptionally good and the automobile races between the winners of the Los Angeles-San Diego-to-Phoenix race are proving attractive. A large number of visitors are expected from Los Angeles on Friday and Saturday.

PRESIDENT TAFT TAKES DEFEAT PHILOSOPHICALLY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—President Taft arrived here at 10 o'clock from Cincinnati and went to the executive offices at once. He was in splendid humor and appeared to take Tuesday's defeat philosophically.

CABINET WILL LANDSLIDE BE MADE UP ON TRIP CONTINUING TO SLIDE

President-Elect and Wife Will

BRYAN REFUSES TO TALK OF CABINET CHANCES

Gov. Johnson Comes Home for Reform Fight; Debs, Foresees Democratic Failure

PRINCETON, N. J. Nov. 7.—

President-elect Wilson's cabinet will be made up during his voyage to Bermuda. It was announced today that the Governor and Mrs. Wilson will sail from New York on November 16 for a two weeks' trip. Wilson's present concern is over New Jersey. He plans a program of reform legislation after New Year's.

W. J. Bryan Reticent
NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Asked today regarding the report that he will occupy an important cabinet position, W. J. Bryan replied: "No one is authorized to speak for me. I would not discuss the subject at this time." There is little doubt in the minds of well informed men that the Com-moner will be secretary of state.

DEBS PREDICTS FAILURE

FOR DEMOCRATIC RULE
TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Nov. 7.—Eugene V. Debs, recent Socialist candidate for President, today said:

"The outcome of the recent election is fortunately so decisive as to place the Democrats in complete control, so there can be no dodging of responsibility. That the Democratic administration will be a flat failure goes without saying. If radical tariff revision or legislation in the interest of the working classes is attempted it is likely big business will precipitate a panic."

FAIR CONTRACTS MOVING ALONG

Rapid Work in Preparing the Grounds for Exposition; Liberty Bell Asked for

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—Contract numbers eleven and twelve covering the North, Service and South Garden sewers within the Exposition site, recently awarded to Pringle, Dunn and Company, of San Francisco, will be completed within less than ninety days.

The sewer work for the Exposition grounds has been divided into five contracts and numbers eleven and twelve are the first two to be awarded.

It will be noted from the foregoing that rapid work is being done in preparing the underground necessities of the Exposition and this work will call for the employment of a considerable force of men.

Contract number ten covering the roadway through Fort Mason was awarded to F. R. Ritchie, of San Francisco. This important piece of work will also be completed within less than ninety days.

Children Ask for Liberty Bell
Petitions for the Liberty Bell have been pouring into the Exposition by every mail. Children attending the public, parochial, and private schools of this city and state have shown deep interest in the campaign to secure the priceless relic for the coming World's Fair.

Requests for petitions are coming in daily from the county and city superintendents of schools throughout California. Thus far 4000 have been sent. When these petitions are signed and returned to the Exposition, they will be added to the enormous reel that has been constructed for holding these petitions.

RAILROADS WILL CARRY DOGS ONLY IF WELL MUZZLED

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Effective January 1, railroads will carry dogs only when securely muzzled. A rule has been adopted by the roads of the Transcontinental Passenger Association that beginning with the date mentioned dogs not to exceed $25 value and not intended for exhibition purposes, "if muzzled" and provided with properly fitting collars and strong leash or in crates, and if accompanied by owner, will be checked and transported in baggage cars.

As before, the charge will be made at regular excess baggage rates for gross weight, the minimum charge for each dog being the regular charge for 100 pounds of excess baggage between the same points.

Democrats Claiming 439 Votes in Electoral College for Wilson and Marshall

ILLINOIS AND WYOMING NOW IN WILSON COLUMN

But Dispatches Indicate That Idaho is Still Safe for President Taft

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—President-elect Wilson will have at least 439 electoral votes. Wyoming's three votes will probably be added to this total, but an official count will be necessary to decide the state. Roosevelt has lost Illinois, but gained Minnesota through the support of the farmers.

Senate in Doubt
Control of the United States Senate is doubtful. By the latest returns the Democrats have gained four senators, and Oregon, Michigan and Wyoming seats are doubtful. If the Democrats get two of these they will have control, without combining with the Progressives.

Wilsonites Claim Illinois
CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—With 600 precincts missing, the Wilson plurality in Illinois is exactly 1500. The Democrats claim the state by 10,000.

TIM SULLIVAN, ELECTED TO CONGRESS, SERIOUSLY ILL

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Simultaneous with his election to congress, the announcement was made yesterday that "Big Tim" Sullivan may not live to serve. He is still in a sanitarium and his trouble is growing worse. He is suffering from brain trouble, it is said.

The end of Sullivan and Sullivan's rule is near, politicians were saying last night.

Idaho Safe for Taft
BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 7.—Governor Hawley, Democrat, concedes his defeat by John Haines, Republican. Taft has a safe majority in the state.

Michigan's Congressional Data
DETROIT, Nov. 7.—The latest obtainable figures show that Michigan's delegation to Congress will be eight Republicans, three Democrats, and two Progressives.

Wilson Wins Iowa
DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 7.—Wilson's plurality, with only one county missing, stands at 15,000. The Republicans have elected their state ticket.

135,000 PLURALITY IN OHIO
FOR WILSON—END NOT YET.
COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 7.—Wilson's plurality will reach 135,000, though yet incomplete.

WILSON GETS 10,000 IN KANSAS;
STUBBS BEATEN FOR SENATE
TOPEKA, Kas., Nov. 7.—The latest available returns indicate that Wilson's plurality in Kansas will be 10,000. Thompson, Democrat, is elected to the Senate over Governor Stubbs.

Bourne Hopelessly Beaten
PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 7.—The Oregon senatorial result is uncertain. Harry Lane, Democrat, appears to have a slight lead over Ben Selling, Republican. Jonathan Bourne, the Progressive incumbent, is hopelessly beaten.

Progressives Claim Illinois
CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Progressive leaders refuse to concede Roosevelt's defeat in Illinois, but also refuse to give figures. On the other hand, Democratic Chairman Boerchstein estimated Wilson's plurality at from 5000 to 10,000.

HEALTH EXPERTS TO AID GUAYAQUIL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The Comptroller of the Currency having decided that the War Department could detail officers for work in Ecuador, the President will soon appoint a commission, of which Colonel Gorgas, medical expert of the canal zone, is to be chairman, to visit Guayaquil and teach the Ecuadorians to get that city in sanitary condition.

Guayaquil is known as the pest port of the Pacific coast and is dreaded by the American Navy. Commander Bertelette died there this year when the Maryland visited that port. It is the common belief that yellow fever always prevails at Guayaquil. The government takes the position that Guayaquil should cease to be a menace to the navy and to the canal.

PASSED AWAY SUDDENLY

Well Known Former Tustin Resident
Died in Los Angeles

Mrs. Ella Van Horn, niece of the late Dr. M. S. Jones, died suddenly yesterday in Los Angeles, where she had gone on business from her home in Imperial. Mrs. Van Horn was very well known in Tustin, where she formerly resided.

The funeral will be held at Covina. The decedent leaves a widower.

WAS VOTE FOR TICKET

All precincts have sent in their returns, and totals show Republican pluralities on every office.

An interesting feature of the totals is the fact that the total vote cast for president on all four candidates, is 11,292, and the total on state senator, the highest on any of the other offices, is 9,849. That is, there were 1443 more who voted on president than there were on senator. The most likely explanation for a large share of this difference is that many people thought that by voting an X after the electors a straight ticket was cast. Of course, there may have been many who voted for president who had no preference for state senator, but the difference is too great to be accounted for wholly in that way.

The returns will be canvassed by the supervisors next Monday.

Schumacher Wins
The third district fight for supervisor was won by William Schumacher of Buena Park by two votes, 1605 to 1603.

The count on this fight will be watched closely next Monday when the supervisors make the canvass of the returns. It is probable that both of the principals will be on hand with representatives, and the returns will be watched closely. The unofficial returns received by County Clerk Williams from the election boards of the third district show the vote to be as follows:

ROYAL GEORGE IS AGROUND ON ROCKS

Canadian Mail Steamer Carrying 901 Passengers in Peril
in St. Lawrence

QUEBEC, Nov. 7.—A dozen tugs are standing by the Canadian Mail steamer Royal George, which, carrying 901 passengers, is aground on the rocks in the St. Lawrence river. No fatalities have been reported, but the steamer, with the bottom ripped out, may topple over at any time.

CANADIAN LINER GOES

AGROUND IN ST. LAWRENCE
QUEBEC, Nov. 7.—The Canadian Northern Royal Mail steamer Royal George, on her way from Avonmouth, Eng., and due in Montreal today, with 901 passengers on board, grounded on the rocks during a fog in the St. Lawrence river early last night and is reported in a serious plight.

The vessel went aground about a mile east of Point St. Laurent, Island of Orleans, ten miles below Quebec. The wrecking steamer Lord Strathcona and two tugs have been sent to the Royal George's assistance. The rocks on which the steamer struck lie on the north side of the south channel.

A DOLLAR PER MILE FOR CARRYING MAIL

Cuba Steamship Gets Contract
From New York City to Vera Cruz, Mexico

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Bids have been opened for the continuation of the ocean mail service between New York City and Vera Cruz, Mexico. Only one bid was submitted, and that was filed by the New York and Cuba Mail Steamship Company, which for the past ten years has been handling the ocean-mail contract over this route.

The figures for which this company now offers to carry the mail is the statutory rate of $1 a mile for each outward mile of the voyage, the service to be weekly, with stops at Havana, Cuba, and Progreso, Yucatan. The distance to Vera Cruz via Havana and Progreso, being about 2024 nautical miles, the contract will be worth about $2024 a week to the company, or about $105,000 annually, and about $1,050,000 during the period of ten years, during which the contract is to run. As no other bid was filed, and the Cuba mail line has been rendering satisfactory service, it will be awarded the contract.

DIVORCED NEW YORKER FOUND PARSON TO TIE THE MARITAL KNOT

NEWPORT, R. I., Nov. 7.—The search of Miss Elizabeth Rebecca Finlay and Edward R. Thomas, the latter a divorced man, both of New York City, for a minister willing to marry them came to a successful end yesterday and at 2:30 in the afternoon they were wedded by the Rev. E. S. Straight of Providence at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. Livingston Beekman, at Land's End. Rev. Straight was to have married Colonel John Jacob Astor and Miss Force in Newport in August of last year, but was relieved of that duty by another clergyman.

ENDORSE PLAN TO SECURE DR. WEBBER

Chamber of Commerce Favors
Extension of Horticultural Experiment Work

At their meeting last night the directors of the Chamber of Commerce endorsed the effort to secure Dr. H. C. Webber, of Cornell University, to take charge of the horticultural experiment work of the state, under the direction of the University of California. Dr. Webber has expressed himself as being willing to take up this work, if given the co-operation of the people of the state, and various bodies have passed resolutions asking him to come. The directors ordered that resolutions to this effect be drawn up and forwarded to Dr. Webber.

A communication was received from the California Cooks' Association suggesting that Nov. 19 be named as Santa Ana day in the exhibit to be held by the association in Los Angeles. No action was taken.

Whitaker & Norton and W. E. Bridwell were elected to membership.

PHOENIX ROAD RACE

VICTOR WINS IN EL

CENTRO FAIR RACE

EL CENTRO, Nov. 7.—Fred Fuller in his "National Forty," in which he won third place in the Phoenix race, carried off all the honors in the informal auto race over a thirteen and one-half mile course yesterday. The Ford, driven by William Pratt, was second. Today is Calexico and Imperial Day at the fair. The woman's clubs of the valley have charge of the crowded exhibit hall. Dates, cotton and citrus fruits exhibits attract many.

Amusing Puzzles

A person may, without stirring from the room, seat himself in a place where it will be impossible for another person to do so. Explain this.

Answer—The first person seats himself on the other's lap.

Place a candle in such a manner that every person shall see it except one, although he shall not be blindfolded, or prevented from examining every part of the room, neither shall the candle be hidden.

Answer—Place the candle on his head, taking care that no mirror is in the room.

Make one word of the letters of words "new door."

Ribbon Plumes

The woman who is using her influence toward the preservation of birds and who makes it a point never to wear feathers, wings or breasts of the innocent creatures, told me joyfully to be sure and see the new ribbon plumes which are shown upon hats in Broadway millinery shop. There they were, three generous plumes fashioned from bits of ribbon, set lengthwise like trunks upon a quill. They were in three harmonious shades and truly I thought them beautiful.

Wanted to Express Himself

"Oh, dear!" exclaimed little Nettie who had fallen into a mudpuddle and soiled her new dress, "I wish I were a man."

"Why do you wish that dear?" queried her mother sympathetically.

"Because," replied Nettie, "us women can't express our thoughts like the men can."

AN OFFICIAL COUNT IS NEEDED

San Francisco Advices Say no Doubt But State is Lost to Roosevelt

BUT FEW HUNDRED OF PRECINCTS TO HEAR FROM

Results From Northern Counties Delayed by Storms; No
Hope of News Today

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—Whether California's electoral votes will be cast for Wilson or Roosevelt for president, developments indicate, may take an official count to decide. If claims this afternoon of the Progressives of Los Angeles county, Roosevelt's stronghold, is sustained the result will be very close. With more than 700 precincts in the county reported, the Progressive figures give Roosevelt 75,599 and Wilson 55,204. This plurality, if correct, will nearly give Roosevelt the state. John Steele in an unofficial computing bureau gives Roosevelt's plurality at 18,358. The last figures are believed to be nearer correct.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—With returns from many Northern California counties still cut off by storms, indications are today that Wilson has captured the state for the Democrats by five thousand. Of the 43,720 election districts in California, 39,000 have been heard from, which indicate the above result. The full unofficial vote will probably not be available until at least tomorrow, but there is no longer any doubt that Wilson has won the state.

LOS ANGELES GIVES T. R.

A MAJORITY OF 17,624
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—With but thirty-one precincts missing, the county of Los Angeles gives Roosevelt 17,624 plurality and assures him a lead of over 19,500 south of the Tehachapi.

OVERWHELMING DEFEAT FOR

RACE TRACK GAMBLING

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 7.—Enough returns have been received to show that the race track gambling amendment was defeated overwhelmingly, and that the Shanahan free text-book amendment carried easily. The count is progressing slow throughout the state on the amendments.

Solid Gold

Commercially speaking, the term "solid gold" is a misnomer, since such gold has not been used for many years. Some of the ancient Roman jewelry and some of that of the Renaissance period was, indeed, made of pure gold, worked up by hand with the crudest of tools, but since the old days there has been a constantly increasing employment of alloys, for the reason that jewelers found that the harder the gold was rendered by good alloys the greater its wearing qualities and the more secure, therefore, was the setting of the gems it contained. Nowadays jewelry is of eighteen, fourteen and ten carats, according to the design and character of the article, and it is much more frequently ten than eighteen carats.

TEN STATES FOR WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Four States on Tuesday Swung Into Line With Ballot for Their Women

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—"Woman suffrage has carried in four of the five states in which the question was put to a ballot," Dr. Anna Shaw, president of the National Woman Suffrage Association of America, declared yesterday at headquarters, 505 Fifth avenue. "Women will have the vote in Michigan, Oregon, Arizona and Kansas, making a total of ten states in all."

"This is by far the greatest victory suffrage has ever won. We expected to win in Kansas, Arizona and Oregon, but we were not confident of the result in Michigan."

"This victory means that we are now on 'easy street.' In the next presidential election every political party will have a woman suffrage plank in its platform. Women will hold the balance of power in the west, and every political party will try to gain the favor of the woman voter. A complete victory for woman suffrage is not far away."

Before yesterday's election women could vote in six states, which have a total of thirty-seven electoral votes, as follows: California, 13; Colorado, 6; Washington, 7; Idaho, 4; Utah, 4; Wyoming, 3. Their victories yesterday give women a voice in the allotment of thirty-seven more electoral votes—Michigan, 15; Kansas, 10; Oregon, 5; Arizona, 3.

Carried By 50,000 in Kansas
TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 7.—The constitutional amendment giving women full suffrage was carried in Kansas by a majority of 50,000, according to returns received yesterday.

RECALL OF JUDGES WINS IN ARIZONA

People Put Back in Constitution That to Which President Taft Had Objected

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 7.—The constitutional amendments providing for the recall of judges and to permit the state to engage in industrial pursuits were carried by overwhelming majorities.

The adoption of the recall yesterday restores it to the state constitution in exactly the same form—both as respects language and physical appearance—as when the original constitution went to Washington for the approval of President Taft.

The president declined to approve the constitution and admit Arizona as a state so long as the charter contained the recall provision. It, consequently, was stricken out.

However, when the first state legislature was convened the first bill to be introduced was that providing for an amendment to the new constitution of the new state providing for the recall.

In order that the provision might go into the constitution in its original form the bill carried in place of the usual printed language a photographic reproduction of the original typewritten draft of the constitution. The bill was passed and the people of the state yesterday put the recall back into the constitution.

SIX AMENDMENTS WERE DEFEATED

Free Text Books for Schools and Irrigation Bonds Measures Only Ones Carried

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—Eight proposed constitutional amendments were voted upon Tuesday by Californians, and last night's returns showed six of them defeated.

The people decided to have free text-books in the common schools of the state, and by an almost identical vote refused to sanction the creation of a state racing commission and the use of pari-mutuel betting and auction pools at races. There is now no betting and no racing in California and this amendment was designed to introduce both, under restrictions.

The single other amendment which was adopted was that making irrigation bonds security for public moneys. Millions of acres of arid lands within the borders of the state, champions of this amendment assert, will be made fertile through the operation of this amendment. It carried by a three to one vote.

ELMER WORTHY IN PLUG UGLY CAST

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Nov. 5.—Saturday night the upperclassmen held their annual rush,—"Plug Ugly." As usual this was preceded by a burlesque show with take-offs of the most important seniors. This show is held on a temporary stage built in front of part of the track bleachers. After the show the two upper classes proceeded to the quad where the seniors tried to prevent the juniors from going through the arch. The big fight took place here and lasted almost an hour. After getting through the juniors serpentine around the inner quad, where the seniors, lined on each side finished smashing the juniors' plugs. Many of the seniors and juniors are wearing black eyes and bandaged heads. Elmer Worthy of Huntington Beach was in the Plug Ugly show cast.

MARE ISLAND NAVY YARD LOOT SEIZED IN CAR IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—A carload of naval supplies, said by the police to have been stolen from the Mare Island Navy Yard at San Francisco, valued at about $50,000, was seized yesterday by the Federal authorities in the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad yard near Hawthorne, Ill. The car was billed to a smelting and refining company with a plant here.

Government investigators said there had existed a band of thieves which has been robbing United States naval yards of supplies aggregating several hundred thousands of dollars.

"It is believed yesterday's discovery will result in disclosing further cases. The car contained more than 50,000 pounds of copper and brass.

The car was consigned to the smelting and refining company by a San Francisco agent.

LOS ANGELES WILL BUILD STOCK YARDS

Corporation Will Spend More Than Million for Central Yards on Coast

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—More than $1,000,000 is to be represented in a Los Angeles corporation for the immediate construction and operation of the holdings and business of the Union Stock Yards Company of Los Angeles, recently incorporated under the laws of the state by J. A. Swank, president; Colonel D. A. Whittaker, vice president; W. R. Letton, secretary and treasurer; John Leotis, a capitalist of Vernon, and their associates.

The permit to establish the stock yards near the city of Vernon was granted last evening by the council of that city, and now the company is ready to begin arrangements for the details of the improvements, which, when completed, will provide the only union stock yards in the state of California, supplying a central market for all the stock on the coast, in the valleys and in the intermountain section.

HORSES RUN AWAY

Orange News: Dragging a spring wagon up-side-down along the pavement, a large black horse, belonging to a Japanese vegetable peddler, attracted considerable attention to himself this afternoon, along North Glassell street.

The horse had started running away, headed toward the plaza. Sweeping in close to the curbing near the Harman blacksmith shop the wagon caught a wheel of a buggy with the result that both vehicles were overturned. The awkward position of the wagon as it jumped and scraped along the pavement prevented the horse from making much headway and avoided possibly serious results. A rear wheel of the wagon was shattered as it overturned. The horse, disheartened by his up-hill pull, was stopped as he reached the plaza.

BRYAN WILL BOSS THE TARIFF JOB

If Any Attempt to Dodge Nation Wide Issue is Made, W. J. to Bring Wilson to Time

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The tariff will be the chief bone of contention among the Democrats. Millions of them are real protectionists including practically all those of the Southern States.

The South now feels that it is in the saddle, having elected a southern man to the Presidency for the first time in sixty-four years. Having many industries that need protection, many of the southern Senators and Representatives will fight any effort by the free trade Democrats to put through the Underwood tariff bills. Some of them voted for the bills at the last session because they knew President Taft would veto them, so that in any event the prosperity of their states could not be endangered. Now, however, they know that Wilson will sign the bills and they are likely to balk at this severe test of their free trade faith.

In the House, there are scores of members who believe in free raw wool. The leaders were able to sidetrack that idea at the last session, but they will not be able to do it when Wilson is in the White House. Free raw wool is popular in some states and unpopular in others.

There is on way to sidetrack this issue. If Wilson attempts to dodge it, William J. Bryan will bring him to book. Bryan is for free wool, and yet, if Wilson comes out for free wool the business interests will say he is abandoning his promise to do nothing to disturb business.

In more ways than one Wilson will soon find himself in hot water. Bryan will not accept office, but will act as the Democratic President's Roosevelt. He will be to Wilson what the Colonel was to President Taft. It is predicted here that Wilson and Bryan will cross swords before the new administration is one year old. Bryan has his eye fixed resolutely on 1916, when he will be an avowed candidate for the presidency, and when he expects his opponent to be Theodore Roosevelt at the head of the old Republican party. Praising enthusiastically at first, condemning with faint praise later when he finds that Wilson is trying to conserve business, and boldly attacking towards the last—this is the course shrewd politicians expect Bryan to follow.

With countless demands for office that he cannot grant, with a topheavy party, divided in opinion as to the policies that should be pursued, and with Bryan posing as censor and critic, Wilson will have his hands full. He is waiting now to see whether he will be forced by public opinion to call an extra session and if he does so the trouble will begin at once.

REDUCE FULLERTON RATE TO 8 CENTS

Fullerton Tribune: For the third time in two years the Southern California Edison Company will make a voluntary reduction in the rate for lighting in the city of Fullerton.

The present rate is 9 cents per kilowatt. On and after January 1, 1913 the rate will be 8 cents per kilowatt. October two years ago, the company cut the rate from 12 1/2 cents to 10 cents. One year ago it was reduced to 9 cents.

With the inception of the 8 cent rate the consumer will get 12 1/2 kilowatts for his dollar as against 8 kilowatts two years ago. This is a substantial decrease.

The rate cut is not due to any agitation but comes purely on the initiative of the company.

OBITUARY

The following resolutions on the death of one of its members was passed yesterday by the Woman's Missionary Society of the United Presbyterian church at a regular meeting:

As our dear friend and fellow worker, Mrs. Mary J. Reed, was called to her heavenly home on Sept. 9, 1912, it is fitting that we as members of the Woman's Missionary Society unite with others in expressing our appreciation of her life and worth. We will miss her presence; the kindly greeting, her ever ready testimony of the goodness of God and the earnest, beseeching prayer that brought us into the very presence of the loving Father. We will always remember her faithfulness in going up to the house of the Lord, and her great longing for divine services when too weak to attend.

Although twenty-eight years had passed since her husband, Rev. S. B. Reed, had been called from her side, yet during her last weeks and months how near he seemed to her, and how precious it has been to recall the many years of their labor together, and especially of their missionary work in Knoxville College. Then when the grief and loneliness came, the soul reached up through the darkness to the Heavenly Father, while the woman's heart, head and hand were busy caring for the helpless ones in a foundlings' home in Chicago. Often she has been cheered by messages of love in her loneliness from those she had helped in other years, and at times she had helped and inspired us by relating many experiences of God's wonderful leading throughout a long life of service. God's Book was the greatest comfort and support to her in her times of trial. She often spoke of some beautiful truth she had just read or some promise upon which she was leaning.

Then, shall we not be glad that for her the enjoyment of a place prepared—the Father's House? Shall we not be glad that for her is no more sickness or distress or loneliness? For at home in the presence of His glory there is fullness of joy.

WOMAN POISONER DENIES NEW POISONING CHARGE

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Pansy Ellen Lesh, who has confessed to poisoning two women, and who has come to be known to the police as the "mysterious poisoner," yesterday afternoon denied the new charge brought against her to the effect that she attempted to poison the infant son of Paul Bauer, a prominent man of St. Louis. The basis of this charge was facts unearthed by the St. Louis police. An officer is now on the way here to take the woman in custody.

"I am guilty of poisoning two women," sobbed Mrs. Lesh, whose wonderful fortitude has seldom been broken, "but I swear before my Maker, love for whom caused me to give myself up, that I never attempted to poison the child. It is true that I was accused of the crime, but I was freed."

THE NEW POLITICAL ERA

A most interesting and timely contribution to the discussion of the present campaign is made by Judson C. Welliver, the well known magazine writer, in the current issue of Munssey's. Mr. Welliver gives his article the title, "The New Era and the New Ideas," and he forecasts in an illuminating manner some of the results which will follow the present Progressive movement. He does not discuss candidates at all, but simply considers some of the issues that are prominent in the mind of the public and the effect on the political, social and economic life of the nation which will follow their earnest consideration. In part he says:

The new era is the era of quickened social consciousness and awakened economic intelligence. It has begun, not merely here, but substantially everywhere. Its forces are reorganizing governments in one country, parties in another, to make them more effective instruments. With these new instruments, new ideas are to be executed. These new ideas may be summarized, for New Zealand and China, for South Africa and Portugal, for Britain and Turkey, for India and America, as representing greater social justice and larger economic efficiency.

It will be the era of opportunity for the average man. The aggregated power of millions of average men is going to find governmental mechanism through which it may watch the great forces controlled by the favored few, and bring conditions into harmony with the broad ideal of getting the greatest good for the greatest number.

The time is past when such altruistic and platitudinous promises as these may be sniffed at and dismissed by "practical" men. The man who cannot see that a new era and a new ideal are here, is the least practical of all. He is getting himself into a position to be run over by the course of moving events. The practical man, today, is he who recognizes what is coming and gets himself into harmony with it.

The bottom purpose, more or less definitely formulated in the national mind, is to make the government, and the huge industrial aggregates which modern conditions have developed, serve the people in the most effective way. It is proposed to secure for the average person—for the small man, if you please—a larger share of the aggregate benefits that modern methods of production and organization make possible.

That sophistry which has long made grievous inequalities between man and man seem to rest on a firm moral foundation, has about finished its usefulness as a protector of privilege. It is no arraying of class against class to point out that these inequalities bring no good to either their beneficiaries or their victims. One man works 12 hours a day for seven days a week, at a barely living wage; another lives in boresome idleness and gilded ostentation; and it is difficult to say which of the unfortunate twain is the more injured by the extremes of his condition in life. It is not good for either, and it is not good for the rest of the community.

The community is coming to understand that such things are not inevitable; that they are not inherent in nature or in human nature. They result in part—not in whole, of course—from the imposition of unsocial conditions under which men must live. It is in the social mind today, as it never was before, to try to find out how far these inequalities may be overcome; how far they are inherent and how far they are caused by man-made institutions, laws, customs, methods. The new era sees man giving devout answer to the question of Cain, and admitting that "I am my brother's keeper."

With this sense of responsibility for men, through social organization, for man, the new era seeks to cure evils, to reduce disorders, to better conditions, with the least possible friction and disturbance. Nobody claims to be very wise, nobody cares to indulge much in dogma, about the precise steps that should be taken, or in what order. It is recognized that progress must be made by experiment, by groping forward; by study and comparison of all the social and economic experiments; by adjusting, adapting, assimilating.

There used to be a more or less popular theory among a certain class of Socialists that a social convulsion, a great upheaval from the very foundations of society, a wrecking of all established structures, and a beginning anew from the bottom was necessary.

That idea is no longer entertained even by extremists. Rather, the thought is to rebuild, reform, reorganize, sanely, persistently.

At the foundation and beginning of such a task, of course, lies the reform of the machinery of parties and political management. The making of nominations will be taken out of the power of the bosses. Nominations will be made by primaries; primaries which will be held under the rules of law, their expenses paid from the public treasury, strictly limited to legitimate needs. Bribery, direct and indirect, will be made as nearly impossible as may be.

Political committees and organizations must come under proper regulatory statutes. Conventions will largely be done away with; the trading, the trimming, and the jobbery that have grown up under this system will be ended, because nominations will be made at the primaries, in orderly, law-governed fashion—made by the people, not by the jobsters and bosses.

Public business is going to be done, in the new era, in the light of publicity. Legislatures and councils will be emancipated from the control that has been exercised in the privacy of committee rooms. Everybody vaguely knows that the real business of legislation, whether it be in the town council or the national congress, is transacted in committees. The jobs are put over there, in private sessions—"executive sessions," we call them, by way of dignity.

The closed session must go. The spectacle of a great committee of congress locking itself up with the representatives of a particular interest, framing legislation vitally important to that interest, will not be seen much longer.

These things may all be classed as the new epoch's reforms in the machinery. They are necessary, in order to get the machinery to grind out a grist that shall represent the real public interest.

Things will speedily cease growing worse. The process of undoing the harm already done will be slower. Vicious provisions that have been inserted in the laws will be sought out and eliminated as fast as possible. Progressive measures will be enacted as fast as they can be worked out into safe, constructive legislation.

Guiding and directing the course of this new development of program and policy will be the twin considerations of social justice and sane economic evolution. Manhood is coming into its own. It will be placed above every other consideration.

It will be our ideal to give every man, woman, or child as nearly as may be an even start and a fair chance in life. It will be the era of consideration for the workers, of protection for the weak and the down-trodden. Larger and better ideals will be set up. Education will be brought within the reach of all the newer generation, and conditions that interpose to prevent a fair development of the intellectual side of the working masses will be reformed.

On the economic side, it will be recognized that society cannot consume more than it produces; therefore the effort will be toward conserving, stimulating, increasing, the product of all the community needs.

Here come the problems of reducing the cost of living, adding to the output of industry, conserving natural resources, developing and increasing the productivity of the soil, and in general making the most of every unit of human energy and natural wealth. In all these fields of activity, organized society will be found working for the common good; no longer will the special, narrow, selfish interest control.

Regulation of industry, of transportation, of great commercial organization, there will be—definite and effective regulation. It will be aimed at the extension of production and the more just and social distribution of products. It will look to building up, not weakening, the fabric of business; to imposing honest methods and fair dealing; to making this a better, stronger, happier country and a more desirable place in which to live.

Origin of the Toast

The word "toast," as applied to a health drunk in some one's honor comes from the old custom of offering the pieces of toast floating in the punch bowl to the most distinguished guests present at the banquet.—Ave Maria.

Our Washington Letter

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Kentucky is a state acquiring some reputation here for being the birthplace of "fool faddists." Some of the congressional representatives of the Blue Grass state are interesting dietetic experts.

Buttermilk is a beverage being popular in the Senate by Senator Paynter of Kentucky. He frequents the quick lunch stands and buttermilk "bars" of Washington, taking several glasses daily. Even after midnight the Kentucky Senator has been seen imbibing his buttermilk "nightcap."

Another Kentuckian with a food hobby is Representative Stanley, chairman of the Stanley Steel Trust investigating committee. He specializes on raw eggs. Two raw eggs are his daily luncheon. Seldom does he take any other food at mid-day. Stanley generally gets the eggs at the cafe in the House office building, cracks each separately into a glass and tosses it off, occasionally with a little salt for seasoning. . . .

A vessel of the U. S. Revenue Cutter Service is to be commissioned for the first time in the history of the service as a prison ship. The revenue cutter "Bear" is to be made a penal floating stronghold at Nome, Alaska, until just before the close of navigation this winter. The Bear will then take to Seattle all prisoners sentenced by the Alaska courts, after the last passenger vessel has sailed to escape the ice. . . .

Glistening white is the Capitol today, following its annual "bath." The House and Senate office buildings are also shimmering with pristine purity, after being soused and scrubbed in preparation for the opening of Congress. . . .

Fall is the house-cleaning season at the Capitol. This year a fire engine the pillars and walls of the Capitol was pressed into service. For a whole day the fire ladders poured water, pumped by a high power engine, on the pillars and walls of the Capitol and two office buildings. Streams of dirt washed off testified to the wholesale cleaning in progress, and left the "seat of government" almost snow white.

Anthracite coal, the cleanest and most expensive obtainable, is used to heat the group of buildings on Capitol Hill, to avoid dust, soot and smoke staining the white stone structures.

House cleaning at the Capitol this year also included general installation of brand new rugs and carpets, new hard wood flooring, much new upholstery and a private monorail transportation system between the Senate office building and the Capitol, with private cars for the Senators.

Automobilists are being warned by Uncle Sam regarding the "rules of the road" which obtain in Canada, following a report to the State Department from T. Botkin, U. S. Consul in New Brunswick.

"American tourists should be warned that in New Brunswick," says the American consul, "the rule of the road in the states requiring vehicles, horsemen or individuals when meeting to 'keep to the right,' and when passing or overtaking one another to 'keep to the left,' does not apply: A New Brunswick judge has ruled that the opposite custom is so old that the memory of man runneth not to the contrary and must be regarded as the law of the Province."

Fake "banana companies" are the newest get-rich-quick or "blue-sky" schemes of which warning is being given by the government to credulous investors. The State Department says many of such companies are operating along the Atlantic, promoting banana plantations in Nicaragua and other Central American republics, and are unloading stock on the American public. The plan adopted by the grafting promoters is to secure options on land and issue stock, without spending a cent on improvements, merely representing the prospective profits in banana plantations.

The Piano That Stirred Up Father in an article entitled: "The Drama of Wages," in the November American Magazine, the author, Mary Field, records a number of interesting stories told to her mostly by working people. Following is her report of what was told to her by Mrs. Farney, a working woman in Chicago:

"Sometimes you live up to your debts," Mrs. Farney told me. "I want to tell you that there ain't nothin' in all the world to raise a man so high as a piano! Why my man was just gettin' his thirteen dollars in a piano factory and seemed like he'd never pick up another cent. One day a piano agent came to see if we didn't want to buy a piano on a ten-year-payment. Crazy-like, I said yes. Well, say, in a few days come the piano. We was all terrible excited that night, and the minute pa come in the house he sensed somethin' was up."

"What in hell's the matter with all of youse?" says he.

"Nothin'," says I, holdin' my peace till he was et.

"Then he went into the front room and seen the piano. 'My God!'" says he, but not angry.

"Well, I could go on 'tillin' you day by day what that piano had done for us. We skimped and saved and at the end of two weeks, comin' on the first payment, pa got his wages raised. Seem'g he walked right up to the boss and says, says he, 'See here, I'm workin' hard, I've got now, I'm a fam'ly man and I got regular payments of a piano.' And the boss smiles and says: 'That so! Why, damn it, you ought to be raised!' And they raised him three dollars. And since then pa's bought a rug and fancy chairs to keep the piano company, an' Hattie takes lessons off the settlement and learns a piece called 'Star o' the East.' So that piano has et up the raise in wages."

Veteran Rebekahs Hostesses to Odd Fellows and Wives Who Aided in Donations

The Veteran Rebekahs of this city were hostesses last night with a chicken dinner for the gallant Odd Fellows and their wives who have aided the Rebekahs in fulfilling a pledge to furnish a room in the new home. Other guests of honor were the trustees and their wives, of the Santa Ana I. O. O. F. building.

Covers were laid for forty and the sumptuous dinner was served at 7 o'clock. The ladies acting as hostesses are past mistresses in the art of getting up excellent meals, so it may be easily imagined what appetizing viands were spread before the guests. Decorations of the table were most pleasing. After dinner toasts, given under the direction of A. E. Bird as toastmaster, were responded to by a number of speakers.

The "feast of reason and flow of soul" was followed by dancing, the banquet room being cleared for this purpose.

It is superfluous to say that the evening was entirely enjoyable. Excellent music was furnished by Mitchell's stringed orchestra and to its strains the dancers tripped gaily through the hours.

To Give Chicken Dinner
At the regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Christian church yesterday afternoon plans were laid for their annual chicken pie dinner and sale of useful articles on Friday, December 13. Final arrangements are in the hands of the committee. New members were received and a pleasant afternoon was spent in quilting.

New Club Organized
A new embroidery club has been organized among young married women in the northwestern part of the city. It will be known by the unique name of "The Billy Club." The first meeting was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Flake Smith at 830 Parton street, and if the initial meeting is a prophecy of future ones, the Billy Club certainly has a joyous season before it.

After the business of organization was completed, the young women proceeded to have a good time with their pretty needlework and interesting topics of conversation. Refreshments completed a busy and delightful afternoon.

The members of the Billy Club are Mrs. Clarence Tedford, Mrs. Joe Babbitt, Mrs. Jesse Elliott, Mrs. Chester Nuckolls, Mrs. Raymond Wilson, Mrs. Harold Henshaw, Mrs. Flake Smith.

Household Economics
The second section of the Household Economics department of the Elbell Club met at the beautiful home of Mrs. J. Howard Turner, 320 Chestnut avenue, this week. The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Hatzfeld, the members responding to roll call by giving many helpful hints in regard to garnishing. The subject of the afternoon included casserole cooking, cheap cuts of meat and Spanish dishes.

The committee responsible for the pleasant afternoon comprised Mesdames Turner, E. B. Burns, Kittie Malone and Miss Margaret Wakeham. The autumnal colors prevailed in the decorations. Delicious refreshments were served.

The Dragon's Landslide
One of the Dragon's windows is claiming considerable notice from passers-by today. It is a cleverly executed allegorical caricature of the recent election. Brown, barren hills of cocoa bear evidence of the havoc wrought by an avalanche. Tiny cedar branches represent mighty trees swept down, while in the direct path of the landslide lies a forlorn little Teddy bear, snowed under a deep sugar drift. A little farther down the patch is a big stick and what remains of a bull moose skeleton tossed aside in the debris, while at the end of the procession a G. O. P. elephant lies dead. Loud above the

Reasons Why You Should Have a Nature Form

Because it is the most practical dress form made.
Because it is an exact copy of you scientifically and perfectly made.
Because it can be adjusted to any change in your figure.

Because it is light in weight, can be easily taken apart and put away when not in use.
Because hundreds of women are now using NATURE FORMS with entire satisfaction.
Because the price is right.
For these and many other reasons you should have a NATURE FORM. Investigate for yourself. Forms on display at 408 North Main street.

Eloquent Speaker Coming
Real interest has been excited in the coming visit to Santa Ana and Orange county of Miss Rhena E. G. Mosher, general secretary of the Young People's branch of the National W. C. T. U. She will spend three days in the county.

Miss Mosher, who is recommended as a speaker by the press all over the United States, will speak to a union meeting of the Santa Ana "Y's" and the Y. M. C. A. on next Monday night at the First Baptist church at 7:30 o'clock. "A good speaker in a good cause" insures a pleasant evening.

Of Miss Mosher as a speaker high words of praise are given by John Willis Baer, president of Occidental College, whose praise is well worth having. He was former secretary of the National Endeavor Society and knows whereof he speaks. He says: "Miss Mosher's address at our International Christian Endeavor Convention was one of the very best I have ever listened to and I wish heartily that every state, local or district union might have the benefit of her words and presence."

All Day Meeting
The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Methodist Episcopal church opened the monthly all-day meeting of the women's societies of that church yesterday forenoon, with Mrs. Alice Young presiding. The large attendance was gratifying. Routine business consumed the session.

At noon an excellent luncheon was spread in the dining room and was partaken of by 125 people. This number included all the Methodist ministers of Orange county who were holding an all-day meeting in the church called by District Superintendent Alfred Inwood to talk over general conditions of Methodism in the county.

In the afternoon the Woman's Home Missionary Society considered the subject of Alaska. Mrs. F. J. Rogers presiding. The interesting Alaskan collection of seal skins, ivory and curios, belonging to Mrs. Spence, was kindly loaned for the occasion and proved a great attraction. Miss Correy read an article on Porto Rico. It was decided during the afternoon to hold a mission tea at the Ross street home of Mrs. F. J. Rogers on Friday, November 15.

Fraternal Aid Affair
The Fraternal Aid had a very profitable and pleasant meeting last night with a good attendance. Candidates were initiated and the popular president, J. Wylie Harris, who recently took unto himself a bride was presented with a handsome silver tray from his brothers and sisters in the lodge. After business had been despatched, refreshments were served.

Guest at Tamale Supper
Miss Gladys Harrison was the honored guest last evening at a tamale supper given by the employees of the tax collector's and assessor's office after working hours. Miss Harrison has been employed in both offices.

Tables were set in the tax collector's office and adorned with fluffy chrysanthemums and a beautifully decorated cake.

Miss Harrison was given a kitchen shower, the utensils being artistically arranged upon a broom, which was presented by Tax Collector Lamb with a fitting speech. The married members of the party gave much advice and instruction in the use of the different articles.

The following were those who participated in the pleasant function: Mr. and Mrs. James Sleeper, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lamb, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Kelly, Misses Myrtle Meyer, Mary Hilyard, Lula Opp, Lena Lauterbach, Mrs. Nessa Jordan, Misses Blanche and Louise Kelly.

After Forty Years
Mrs. Sarah Turner is a very happy woman because she is enjoying a reunion with her sister, Mrs. Scranton, after a separation of more than forty years. Mrs. Scranton's home is in Nebo, Ill.
She is accompanied by her brother, George Bogart, of Ontario, Cal.

Wedding Surprises
Miss Eva Robinson and James Ellett, both of Santa Ana, left this afternoon for a wedding trip to San Francisco, expecting to be gone two weeks. They were married just a few minutes before leaving, by Paul E. Wright, in the study of the Christian church.

This wedding news will come as a complete surprise to their friends. A. R. and Mrs. Elliott contemplate building a home on Birch street on their return.

Personals

R. L. Reed, recently of Porterville, has bought E. E. Cooley's interest in the Smith & Cooley realty firm. The firm will in future be Smith & Reed, and will make a specialty of northern lands.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hillyard and Miss Monta leave Friday by auto for Willow Springs on a two months visit to O. O. Hillyard, who has a ranch at that place. The young man is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Hillyard.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Morrow left this morning on a pleasure trip lasting over the week-end. They went first to visit Mrs. Morrow's mother and sister, Mrs. Wright and Miss Weston Wright of Pomona. Later in the week they expect to go to Camp Baily, returning home next Monday.

Mrs. F. L. Austin and Miss Helen Austin spent the day in Los Angeles. Mrs. Sam C. Newnes and baby, Madeline, came over from Anaheim this morning for a several days' visit with friends in this city during Mr. Newnes' absence in the East.

M. T. O'Bryan had business which took him to Los Angeles this forenoon.

T. E. Stevenson left today for a three or four days' absence at Sacramento and Berkeley. He hopes to witness the Stanford-University of California football game at Berkeley on Saturday, and of course will root for Stanford, his alma mater.

R. Raymond Miles leaves tomorrow for Berkeley, where he will see the Varsity football game. He will also look after some business during his five days' absence, and will also visit friends in the bay cities.

Flagged Train With Shirt

Tearing his shirt from his back an Ohio man flagged a train and saved it from a wreck, but H. T. Alston, Raleigh, N. C., once prevented a wreck with Electric Bitters. "I was in a terrible plight when I began to use them," he writes, "my stomach, head, back and kidneys were all badly affected and my liver was in bad condition, but four bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." A trial will convince you of their matchless merit for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Price 50 cents at all druggists.—Advertisement.

CLEAN AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR—25 CENT "DANDERINE"

In a Few Moments Your Hair Looks Soft, Fluffy, Lustrous and Abundant—No Falling Hair or Dandruff

Surely try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil. In a few moments you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of "Dandruff", cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.—Advertisement.

Envoy McGlasher will sing at all meetings.

NO FOUNDATION FOR THE REPORT THAT EVANS HAS CHANCE

A report was current on the streets here today to the effect that the figures on the congressional race in this district were wrong, and that Evans might be elected instead of being defeated.

Inquiries set in motion by the Register discovered no foundation for such a report. Evans' majority in Riverside, at first reported as about 4000, will not exceed 3600 and he loses Imperial county by 200 to 300, and also loses Inyo county by from 100 to 200. He carries Mono county by a small majority. He is surely defeated by about 3000.

Music and the Drama

Magda at Grand

The play of "Magda," given last night at the Grand Opera House with McKee Rankin and Margaret Drew in stellar roles of the Sudermann masterpiece, was played with the sincerity and thoroughness of interpretation that might be expected of such sterling artists.

A sex problem play, "Magda" was given with a cleanliness that rendered it acceptable to the audience, the moral teaching of the drama making it of value to the thoughtful playgoer. Of McKee Rankin, so long has been visiting the Pacific coast and so thoroughly is he known and admired, that praise seems useless. He is always in the class known as the best in dramatics. Margaret Drew is engaging and capable, and the supporting company is excellent.

PIONEER SOLON SERIOUSLY ILL

Former U.S. Senator J.P. Jones of Santa Monica Ill With Chronic Ailment

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—Former United States Senator John P. Jones, who recently leased the Hancock Banning home at Adams and Figueroa streets, is seriously ill there.

Senator Jones has had chronic kidney trouble for a long time and Monday his ailment became acute. He went to bed in considerable pain, but members of the family say his condition has improved and that they expect him to be up again in a day or two.

The former Nevada Senator was 83 years old last June, and his advanced age gives a character of seriousness to an illness that would be considered comparatively slight in a younger man.

As far back as 1863 Senator Jones was a member of the California State Senate, after he had attained prominence in the development of California mines. In 1867 he went to Nevada and in 1873 was elected United States Senator. He served five terms in the Senate, finally retiring in 1903.

DELICIOUS "SYRUP OF FIGS" CLEANS YOUR TORPID LIVER AND CONSTIPATED BOWELS

Fermentation in Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Waste-Clogged Bowels Cause the Sick Headache, Sourness, Gastritis, Biliousness and Indigestion

If headachy, bilious, dizzy, tongue coated, stomach sour and full of gas, you belch undigested food and feel sick and miserable, it means that your liver is choked with sour bile and your thirty feet of bowels are clogged with effete waste matter not properly carried off. Constipation is worse than most folks believe. It means that this waste matter in the thirty feet of bowels decays into poisons, gases and acids and that these poisons are then sucked into the blood through the very ducts which should suck only nourishment to sustain the body.

Most people dread physic. They think of castor oil, salts and cathartic pills. They shrink from the after effects—so they postpone the dose until they get sick; then they do this liver and bowel cleansing in a heroic way—they have a bowel washday—loaded wagon passing over his body. He was hurried to the Long Beach sanitarium where it was found that while no bones were broken he was probably injured internally, though the physicians think he will recover.

FAMOUS WISCONSIN VARSITY COURSES TO BEGIN THIS MONTH

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 7.—The first of the county farmers' courses of the college of agriculture of the University of Wisconsin is to be held in Barron county November 18, 19 and 20, under the direction of F. D. Otis, county representative of the college in that county. A postmortem demonstration of the ravages of bovine tuberculosis and a competition between pure bred draft colts will be two of the interesting features.

That is all wrong. If you will take a teaspoonful of delicious Syrup of Figs tonight, you will never realize you have taken anything in the morning, when all the poisonous matter, sour bile and clogged-up waste will be moved on and out of your system, thoroughly but gently—no griping—no nausea—no weakness. Taking Syrup of Figs is a real pleasure. Don't think you are drugging yourself; it is composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics, and constant use can not cause injury.

Ask your druggist for "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," and look for the name, California Fig Syrup Company, on the label. This is the genuine—oil reliable. Any other Fig Syrup offered as good should be refused with contempt. Don't be imposed upon.—Advertisement.

NORTH COUNTIES PLANNING EXHIBIT

Six Will Select Site at San Diego for 1915 Fair Building—City Busy on Fair Grounds

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Nov. 7.—The Division of Works of the San Diego Exposition is grading and filling the site of the Southern California Counties building and has commenced work on the retaining walls. This building will conform to the Mission style of architecture which will be closely followed by all buildings of the exposition. The main exhibit of this section will be an orchard of 800 trees, representing 17 varieties of citrus fruit. These trees, selected as the finest from thousands of specimens, have been planted for some time and are already showing good growth.

The six counties, San Mateo, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, San Benito, Monterey and San Luis Obispo, comprising the Monterey Bay Counties League, decided to combine in an elaborate exhibit of their resources and products at the San Diego Exposition in 1915, at a meeting of the league held in Watsonville October 16. The supervisors and exposition commissioners will visit San Diego after election for the purpose of looking over the grounds and selecting a site. Officials of the Cosmos steamship line have completed arrangements for a round-the-world service and in January will start new vessels on the run from Hamburg and Liverpool via the Mediterranean and Suez Canal and far eastern ports, covering until the Panama Canal is open the same route as the Blue Funnel steamers to the North Pacific coast. San Diego is included as a port of call in the new service.

Among the general service buildings of the San Diego Exposition is a field hospital fully equipped for service, with graduate nurses in constant attendance, a restaurant for the use of employees, and several houses fitted with shower baths. Thus far there hasn't been an accident on the grounds.

Alameda County has asked for an option on a site at the San Diego Exposition until January 1. The North of Bay counties are planning an elaborate exhibit.

President D. C. Collier of the San Diego Exposition is personally escorting a party of noted Brazilians from New York to San Diego. The distinguished visitors include Dr. Eugenio Dahne, commissioner to the United States from the Department of Agriculture, Industry and Commerce of Brazil; Dr. Argolho, delegate from the State of Bahia and Government lecturer; Count Candido Mendes de Almeida, Director of Brazilian Commercial Museum, secretary and member of the Brazilian Permanent Exposition commission and owner of the Jornal de Brazil of Rio de Janeiro, the most influential newspaper in Brazil. Dr. Dahne and Count Mendes are accompanied by their wives. The party is expected in San Diego about the first of November.

It will require 16,000 barrels of cement, 500 tons of steel and 800,000 feet of lumber to build the great bridge over Cabrillo Canyon at the San Diego Exposition. The east approach to the bridge is already finished and the forms for the arch set up.

CARPENTERS AT WORK ON GREEN-HOUSES

SAN FRANCISCO, N. Y., 29.—A large force of carpenters is at work on the green-houses and potting house that are being erected in Tennessee Hollow at the Presidio Reservation, for the Landscape Department of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition.

These green houses and potting house will hold the plants and flowers that are being prepared for planting on the Exposition site. The building of these structures is being done under the direction of Neil A. McLean, a contractor of this city.

According to the specifications the ground to be occupied by the green houses will be 13,640 square feet. They are being provided with piping which will connect with the heating plant, which is to be located in the potting house a short distance away.

The green houses are for the purpose of propagating the flowers and plants which are to be used in beautifying the Exposition grounds. John McLaren, the landscape gardener, has a score or more of men employed preparing the trees and plants for the Exposition. He has 30,000 plants and trees ranging in size from seedlings to trees thirty-five to forty feet in height.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Three of Us"

Just when it seems that poor little Rhy MacChesney, played by Florence Theyer McClay, in "The Three of Us," cannot help but succumb to the irony of fate, after fighting bravely, as only an aristocrat could, to protect the "good MacChesney name," or to lead her two headstrong, half-wild younger brothers nearer the right paths of life, or about to lose the love of true-hearted Steve Townley—just when things are darkest and there are tears in the eyes of everyone, then it is that one feels grateful for the finesse of Rachel Crother's dramatic instinct prompted her to have, in her play, such genuinely humorous people as Tweed Bix, the stolid Englishman, with his unconscious stock of fun, or Maggie, the Irish woman, whose heart is big enough to enfold the girl and her brothers (the trio that gives the play its name).

Then there is Mrs. Tweed Bix, affectionately called "Bixie," whose fund of common sense is unlimited, and Hop Wing, the Celestial major domo of Berresford's headquarters. All in all "The Three of Us" combines more than any play of recent years, those elements of comedy and drama, which go further than anything else toward spelling success and popularity with the mass of theater-goers of this country, who are, after all, the only true critics of drama.

of his discovery. Clem is just at the age when money and the lack of it are the biggest things in a boy's life—the age when he says, "I want to get out of this hole." Louis Berresford, another very wealthy suitor of Rhy's, happens to be in the room with Clem just after the boy overhears Steve's secret and is immediately interested in Clem's offer to sell his information. Later, at the dinner, it develops that the boy has sold out and that Berresford has stepped in ahead of the New York investor and purchased Mrs. Bix' claim, cautioning her not to say a word about the transaction to anyone. Rhy, who with all the others, is at Mrs. Bix' dinner party, tells Berresford that to her the one essential thing in life is absolute trust. This gives Berresford an idea. He decides, knowing he can depend on the girl's word of honor, to tell her that he bought "Bixie's" claim. Soon, Trenholm, the New Yorker, asks Mrs. Bix "at what time tomorrow may I see you in regard to your claim?" Of course, when Bixie tells him that she has sold and refuses to tell to whom, Trenholm is placed in a very bad light in Trenholm's eyes, as Steve told him (Trenholm) that he was the only one knowing anything of it. Steve says he knows who bought it in order to protect Rhy, MacChesney. He more than half suspects Berresford. Rhy, sorely tried girl that she is, goes to Berresford's quarters that night, after the dinner, and asks Berresford to release her from her promise in order that Steve's doubts as to her integrity may be set right. Steve, going to Berresford to demand an explanation, finds Rhy there. To reveal what follows would be to spoil the dramatic effect of one of the most tense, gripping scenes in contemporary play writing. From the first to the last act of "The Three of Us," there is not a dull moment. With a just blending of light and shade the interest in the play's very human characters never relaxes. Already the tickets for the performance Wednesday, November 13, are selling rapidly at Rowley Drug Company. Prices 25c, 35c and 50c.

"The Girl From U. S. A."

A splendid offering at the Grand Opera House. The management is fortunate in having among its bookings as a coming attraction Miss Oulna Marion and a clever company in "The Girl From U. S. A.," a comedy drama in three acts. The play has been made famous the past few years, playing the larger cities only. It relates a sweet story of life on the continent and takes the spectator nearly around the world during its three acts. And those who delight in pretty stage stories and settings will welcome the announcement. This attraction will appear at the Grand Opera House on next Monday, Nov. 11.

RIVERSIDE ACCEPTS

PARK WITH FAMOUS OLD ORANGE TREE

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 7.—The fact that one of the original navel orange trees, which are greatly prized by Riverside, is on land owned by private parties, led the council yesterday to accept the proffer of a deed to a triangular piece of land on which the tree stands, at the intersection of Magnolia and Arlington avenues. The acceptance of the deed means that the city will have to maintain the parcel of land as a public park, and several hundred dollars will have to be expended at once in sidewalks, curbs and gutters. The offer was made by P. T. Evans, who since the extension of Magnolia avenue to the heart of the business district, has subdivided the property developed by his father in the city's pioneer days, at the head of what is now known as Old Magnolia avenue. New Magnolia is a three-mile extension of this famous thoroughfare.

"SEE THAT BALD HEADED YOUNG MAN"

"I know he is only 38," said one young lady to another at a social function, "but he looks like 50." "Better say he looks like 60," replied the other. Young men who use PARISIAN Sage never grow bald because the hair root is supplied with plenty of nature's own nourishment, which means at all times an abundance of healthy hair. Young men, if your hair is thinning out; if that little bald spot on top is beginning to spread, try PARISIAN Sage. It is guaranteed by the Rowley Drug Company to stop falling hair, banish dandruff and scalp itch, or money back. 50 cents at dealers everywhere.—Advertisement.
